#1767
Nick Haworth

In the matter of the Application of N F Haworth, for Pardon.

Excepts, from Abstract of Record.

Trial had at Farmington ,Davis County Utah, and verdict rendered June 20th 1900.

Testimony in substance of E P Ellison.

Live at Layton, ,Manager of Farmers Union Store there, Knew Thomas Sandall, he is dead. Up to March 28 he waw watchman at store . Saw him on afternoon of March 28, 1899. Saw his dead body next morning. There was a wound in his face .The shot entered his mouth. Blood under his head and a number of No 4 shot betwen his head and the counter.

Indications of a struggle were that a pair of scales were upset ; they had been run into or hit. were all of their hinges .

There are double doors in the N E corner of the building also two single doors in north west , the latter being double - an outside and an inside door.

On March 28 , doors on south west corner ,locked on inside with bolts. and alarm bells same as on front door .

Identifies pistol used by Sandall, which he got in Sept from one of Thornley boys. Searching party on March 29, various articles found. Bunch of keys belonging to Sandall ,an empty shot gun shell and a woolen sock, also an iron bar, the sock retained the shape of the bottom of a shoe. Identifies iron bar as the bar found on March 29 1899. -. On April 12th an overcoat was brought to witness and 28 loaded cartridges, a sack was in the coat. The door leading into the cellar was open, ,the door from the inside of store into cellar . It was the custom to lock this door but it was open that morning and no indications of violence ,as if anything had been used to open it. One of Sandalls keys was a key to that door . There was no indication as to how store was entered save floor print in coal in basement under coal chute.