Salt Lake City, Utah, June 25, 1914

Application of D U Potter

To the Honorable Board of Pardons of the State of Utah:

I hereby apply to your Honorable Body for a pardon and respectfully represent as follows:

First—That I am serving a term of imprisonment in Country Jail under conviction and sentence on a charge of writing a worthless check

Second—I was convicted and sentenced on the 26 day of April A. D. 1914, at Salt Lake City County of Salt Lake and State of Utah, in Justice Court, in and for the County and State aforesaid, Honorable Judge Bishop presiding.

Third—I was sentenced to fifty months and thereafter was imprisoned in the County Jail

Fourth—Honorable Mr Morgan prosecuted the case.

Fifth—My true name in full is Oliver Vernon Potter. I was convicted under the name of D U Potter.

Sixth—The names of persons charged to have been connected with the same offense are as follows: Sidney Harris

Seventh—I have never been convicted of any offense except

Respectfully submitted,

D U Potter

1911