Salt Lake City, Utah, July 13th. 1894.

The Governor of Utah,

Salt Lake City,

Sir:-

I have examined the petition referred to me by you, asking a pardon for Nephi Anderson and Sophus Mullrup, and beg to say that they were indicted on March 14th. 1894, for burglary, in the Fourth District Court of Utah Territory; they were arraigned on the same day and pleaded guilty and were sentenced at once to one year in the Penitentiary each.

I know nothing in the world about the case as it was prosecuted entirely by my Assistant, Judge Maginnis; but the Judge who tried the case and Judge Maginnis who prosecuted it, both recommend the pardon. They put it upon the ground that the parties have been sufficiently punished for their offense; if you consider in that view; then I see no objection to the pardon, but I am not able to make any recommendation myself in the matter for the want of any knowledge of the case.

Respectfully yours,

J. M. Jones
U. S. Atty.

and Nephi Anderson I think they have been sufficiently punished.

James A. Miller
