J. R. Thurman.
Attorney at Law.
Bank Building.

Provo City, Utah. 189

In relation to the case of the people against Morris. I am sorry I cannot now recommend his pardon. His case although is not such a one as excites sympathy in those charged with the duty of administering the law. I do not want to say anything specially against him but I think he deserves some punishment

Yours etc
J. R. Thurman
Govt in Person