In Re
H. P. Johnson } Petition for Pardon

On the 24 day of February A.D. 1894 at a term of the District Court of the First Judicial District Court in and For Utah Territory an indictment was found by the Grand Jury thereof charging one James Johnson and your petitioner, H. P. Johnson with the crime of "Assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do bodily harm"

At a Jury Trial had in said case on the 7th day of March 1894 a verdict was rendered by said jury finding the defendant James Johnson guilty of assault and the defendant H. P. Johnson guilty as charged and upon said verdict the Court rendered sentence "That the defendant H. P. Johnson be imprisoned in the penitentiary at Salt Lake City, Utah Territory for the term of one year.

The material facts as appeared on the trial of said cause are: That upon the 25th day of Dec. 1893 at Redmond, Sevier County, Utah, there was being held on the evening of said day a Sunday-School party, and that at such party were in attendance the defendant James Johnson, H. P. Johnson, Peter Gargason and divers other persons

That the evidence tended to show that beer and perhaps other intoxicants had been indulged in to a
