~~Dear Sir~~ Since two or three months ago I sentenced two Indian boys to the penitentiary for one year each. The facts are that while drunk they stole a horse and rode it off. the horse was recovered and the Indians made full restitution to the owner. I thought it best to send them to the penitentiary for a short time but in my judgment nothing whatever will be gained by keeping them longer. I could not sentence them for less than one year. Their names are Alexander Salaquiet and John Dog Indian. I ask that you pardon them. Their Chief and the father of one of them have called to see me and think I can grant a pardon. I give them the letter and no doubt they will present it to you.

Yours truly
C. S. Zane
