

J. PARLEY WHITE,
CHIEF DEPUTY.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH,

Apr. 16, 1912.

The Pardon Board.

Salt Lake City, Utah.

Gentlemen:-

I understand that the mother of Mr. Fred Eldredge is quite ill and seems to be taking his imprisonment very much to heart. His wife also seems to be very much worried over his confinement.

Until Mr. Eldredge got into this trouble, I have never heard of any wrong that he has committed and if you feel it consistent with your policy to Parole him, I believe it would be a great benefit to his aged mother and wife and small child. I wish to assure you that they have the sympathy of all the officers who had anything to do with the case.

Respectfully,

Joseph C. Sharp
Sheriff

I trust that the application for Pardon will be favorable acted upon. His wife and child needs aid,
Yours truly,
Nema Eldredge
