

Whiterocks, Utah,

March 11, 1925.

The State Pardon Board,

Salt Lake City , Utah.

Gentlemen:

In regard to the case of my son Martin E. Curtis, which you considered at your last meeting, and will again consider at your meeting of the twentieth, I wish to say that if there is any assistance that I can give you, I will be glad to do so.

At your last meeting you did not think it necessary for me to again make the trip in, and I have not planned on it, as it is very difficult. But if you think it necessary I will come or send my daughter.

Sincerely,

E. B. Curtis
