

IN THE SIXTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE OF UTAH

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF SEVIER.

State of Utah,

vs.

Louis Atkins, Defendant.)

To the Honorable State Board of Pardons,

Salt Lake City, Utah.

Gentlemen:

On the 28th day of January 1924, the above named defendant, Louis Atkins, was brought before the District Court of the Sixth Judicial District of the State of Utah, in and for Sevier County, upon a charge of burglary in the third degree, alleged to have been committed in Sevier County, State of Utah on the 17th day of January of this year.

The defendant, who was unable to furnish bail and was therefore in the custody of the Sheriff, was brought into Court and was advised by the Court of his right to have counsel, and also upon matters set forth in the information and other legal matters pertaining to the case, before he was required to answer to the charge. And being informed by the defendant that he did not have any means with to employ counsel, that he was a stranger in this part of the country and only 20 years of age, the Court thereupon appointed Judge Henry N. Hays and Sterling K. Hepler, Esq., as counsel to represent the defendant. After a brief consultation with his attorneys the defendant, in company with his counsel came into Court and waived further time in which to plead, and requested that he might enter his plea immediately. And thereupon, being requested to plead to the information, he entered his plea of guilty as charged.

And after being further advised as to the time for
