

Q Where was that? A. In Oregon.

Q What was that for? A. Drunkenness.

Q Had you come here to live, at the time you committed this crime? A. No sir; I had started home.

Q You were on your way home? A. Yes sir.

Q How long had you been in town? A. Three days.

Q What was your idea for doing it?

A To get money to go home.

Q You wanted to get money to go on home? A. Mes sir.

Q Couldn't you find work?

A No sir; not at the time.

Q Did you try to get work? A. I tried, yes sir.

Q But you did not succeed? A. No sir.

Q So you concluded the thing to do was to go and rob this place?

A Yes sir.

Q That kind of thing has not been your habit, has it, Mr. Phillips, up to this time? A. No sir.

Q How did you get that notion into your head?

A Well, I wanted to go home, and I could not get work. I had to have some money.

Q And you concluded that was the way to get some money?

A Right at the time being, yes sir.

Q I can't understand the attitude of a young man like yourself in doing a thing like that. Now, you dont look like a man who would be disposed to do that kind of a thing.

A I did not do it ad a practice, no sir; one time is all.

Q Do you think it is right to have done it?

A No sir, I do not.

Q Didn't that occur to you at the time, just before you did it, or at the time you were doing it?
