

- A I thought about it quite a bit, yes sir.
- Q And still you concluded that was the thing to do?
- A Yes sir.
- Q What time of night was it?
- A It was about two o'clock I think.
- Q In the morning? A. Yes sir.
- Q You broke into the building? A. Yes sir.
- Q Did you have any difficulty in doing that? A. No sir.
- Q It was easy for you, was it? A. Yes sir.
- Q Did you have any tools to do it with?
- A Only an automobile tool.
- Q What part of the building-- did you open the door?
- A No sir; I went through the elevator shaft.

THE COURT: Is there any question you desire to ask the defendant?

MR. ROGERS: No, your Honor.

THE COURT: I should like very much to admonish a young man like you, Mr. Phillips, if I thought it would do any good. I don't know as to that. That is a matter that is up to you, whether the Court gives you any admonition or not. It is a distressing thing, that the Court should be called upon, in a case such as this, to act; but of course society demands protection, and it is against people like you that society must be protected.

A Yes sir; I realize that.

THE COURT: The sentence of the Court in your case will be that you be confined in the State Prison of the State of Utah, under the Statute known as the Indeterminate Sentence
