

SEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT

STATE OF UTAH

DILWORTH WOOLLEY
JUDGE

MANTI

December 20, 1923.

Mr. C. Martinez,
C/o Utah State Prison,

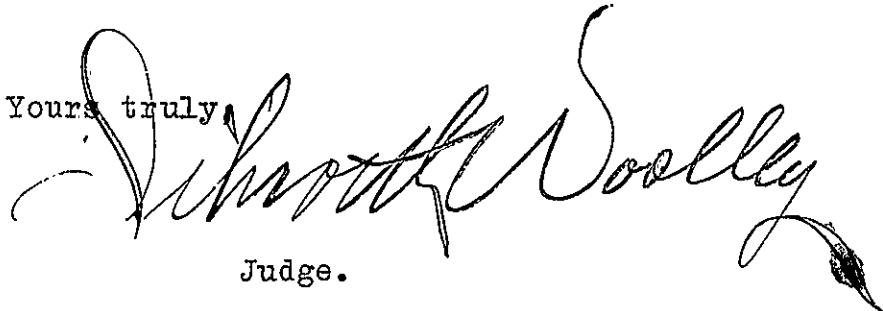

Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Sir:

In answer to your letter of the 14th inst., in which you make inquiry as to the period of imprisonment which I recommended in your case and request that I write a word to the state board of pardons to be considered at its meeting in March, please be advised that my recommendation was that you be imprisoned for one year. I have already written to the board to this effect and I know of no reason why I should change that recommendation. It is on file with the secretary of the board and will undoubtedly be considered at the March meeting, if you make your application at that time.

I am glad to hear that your record during the time that you have been there is good; and I hope that you will keep it good during the remainder of your term.

Yours truly,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "Dilworth Woolley". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the word "Judge.".

Judge.