

to come that I can go forth into the world again a better man.
So, thanking you in advance, I remain.

Yours
J. R. Mendeney

4171

any of the Prison Rules, and I am asking a chance to come forth into world again, and I know in my own heart, and soul, if given a chance that I will never again violate the rules of the people again for I have learned a lesson.

And I have a position awaiting me when I gain my release, and I have not seen my dear mother in years, and she is awaiting me with open arms.

So, hoping that you will give this appeal consideration, I will await patiently for the day.