

THE COURT: Let the record show that the defendant, through his counsel, waives the reading of the Information. Did the defendant plead Not Guilty to the Information as it stands, charging Burglary in the Second degree?

MR. ROGERS: Yes.

THE COURT:

Q Mr. Williams, you have heretofore been arraigned on the charge of Burglary in the Second degree, to which you entered a plea of Not Guilty. Counsel now says that you are willing, with the consent of the State, to withdraw your plea to the Information as read before, or as it stood before, and that you are willing to plead now to a lesser degree of the crime charged, that is, Burglary in the Third degree; is that right?

A Yes sir.

Q Then to the charge of Burglary in the Third degree, what is your plea, Guilty or Not Guilty?

A Guilty.

THE COURT: Let the plea be entered. Now is the defendant ready for sentence at this time?

MR. ASHWORTH: Yes sir.

THE COURT: Do you desire to ask any questions, Mr. Rogers?

MR. ROGERS: No, your Honor.

THE COURT:

Q How old are you, Mr. Williams? A. Eighteen.

Q Where were you born? A. Comanchie, Texas.

Q How long have you been in Utah? A. Well, about three months. I worked here about a month before, in American Fork, then I went to Montana, and came back here.
