

Salt Lake.
April 7, 1923

Dear Sir:-

I am writing about my husband Mr. Tony LaJeunesse, which is in the State prison,
+ up for pardon this month.
+ Mr. Levine told me he didn't know if he would be pardon or at. Right now he is on the road.
I would come up + see you but, I am sick, + can not get around very well. I sure do need my husband. I have three little girls + it is pretty hard to take care of them. So wont you see what you can do for me, + if you think he can not be pardon please write + draw it, at once. Hoping