Gov. Charles R. Mabey,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Governor Mabey, Personal

This is to remind you of my plea to you on Saturday last for parole for George Shaw of Ogden.

I have known this boy, for he is scarcely more than a boy, being I presume not over 30 years of age, for many years. I have known his father and his uncles for 25 years. They are all honest and respectable people. George Shaw has been a salesman for Cheesman Automobile Co. for 10 years. He has always impressed me as a competent, courteous, obliging young man, and I have always regarded him as a gentleman. I think he is more or less the victim of circumstances in this case as I explained to you. I think he and his family have suffered most because of his mistake, and I believe the ends of justice would best be served if leniency could be shown to him now. I would be willing to make myself personally responsible for the good behavior of George Shaw if he is granted a parole.

Very respectfully yours,

E. Becker
