Sept. 18, 1923.

HONORABLE STATE BOARD OF PARDONS,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Gentlemen:-

In Re State of Utah vs. Lawrence
Hamilton.
Application for termination of sentence.

On May 2nd, 1921 Lawrence Hamilton was sentenced to be imprisoned on the charge of grand larceny, which sentence was from one to ten years. I have had several communications from him heretofore, in answer to which I have refused to advise leniency. I am informed now that the Warden and officers of the prison have recommended that his sentence be terminated. If such is the fact, I now recommend that his application be granted.

I haven't any information in this case in addition to the information I gave you in my communication of June 16th, 1921.

Yours respectfully,

James N. Kimball
