

THE COURT: Is that all you have to say about it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

THE COURT: The court, of course, will listen to the recommendation of the District Attorney, and the authorities, Mr. Gordon, County Attorney of Tooele County, and any other recommendations that may be presented, in fixing the time which you ought to serve.

THE DEFENDANT: I am expecting to turn everything over to the sheriff to turn into money to pay these checks.

THE COURT: The court should say this, the court has not any definite power to fix any time. That all remains with the Board of Pardons, and a great deal will depend upon your conduct in the institution after you get there. If you observe the rules, why, your time will be very much briefer, no doubt, than otherwise.

The judgment of the court is that on the first count that you be taken by the Sheriff of Tooele County to the State Prison and there confined for a period not exceeding the maximum term prescribed by law for the crime of forgery, and not less than the ~~max~~ minimum term prescribed by the statute for that offense, and on the second count the judgment of the court is that you be taken by the Sheriff of Tooele County to the State Prison, and there confined for a term not exceeding the maximum prescribed by law for the offense of uttering a forged instrument, and not less than the minimum for said offense, and the judgment and order of the court is that the two sentences run concurrently.
