

burglary?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: No, sir, just walked around the street, and we said there was a good store, and we went back and slept in a caboose until about four o'clock when we came out and went there.

THE COURT: Did you say anything about robbing the bank?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: No, sir.

THE COURT: You suggested breaking into the store?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: I dont know who it was. I know it was not me.

THE COURT: Which boy was it? Was it the white boy?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: I dont know which one it was.

THE COURT: Mr. Higgins have you got anything to say?

MR. HIGGINS: Nothing further.

THE COURT: You have tried to break out of jail here a time or two?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: No, sir.

THE COURT: Which one or two of you boys tried to break out?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: One boy worked on it.

THE COURT: Who was that? The white boy?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: The other Mexican boy.

THE COURT: What did he do?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: That man that was in here left a knife there, and he tried to make a saw.

THE COURT: That was the other Mexican boy?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: Yes.

THE COURT: Did he have anybody with him?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: Sure we all did.

THE COURT: All tried to break out?

DEFENDANT AGUILAR: Yes.

THE COURT: That is all. You may sit down, Mr. Puffer
