

THE COURT: Ever been in trouble before?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: No, sir.

THE COURT: Ever put in jail?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes, put in jail one time for begging.

THE COURT: For begging?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.

THE COURT: Where did you get?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: One time down in Beebe, Arizona. They put me in jail two days.

THE COURT: When were you in jail again?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Never been in jail.

THE COURT: Where did you meet the other Mexican boy?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: At Yuma, Arizona.

THE COURT: Then you started to Los Angeles?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.

THE COURT: How did you get to Los Angeles? Ride in a box car?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.

THE COURT: Bummed your way?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.

THE COURT: Were you hunting for work?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.

THE COURT: Did you find any work?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: No.

THE COURT: Where did you work last? When did you do your last job of work?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: When I was home I was working.

THE COURT: Never had a job since you left home?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: No, sir.

THE COURT: How have you been living?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Another guy lived in Los Angeles. I lived with him.

THE COURT: How did you live when you left Los Angeles?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Cant find a job.