

THE COURT: How did you get something to eat?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Slept with him.

THE COURT: But you haven't been down to Los Angeles all the time?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: No, sir.

THE COURT: What have you been doing since? Begging?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Couldn't find a job.

THE COURT: What is your mother's name?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Fernanda.

THE COURT: Where is her address?

MR. MURDOCK: I have that.

THE COURT: You know that this crime you have committed will send you to the State penitentiary for one year, and they may keep you there for twenty years. You are in a serious predicament.

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Didn't you know at that time that you would go to the penitentiary?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes, but--

THE COURT: The judgment of the court is that you, Jimmy McCarthy, be committed to the custody of the Sheriff of Beaver County to be taken to the Penitentiary of the State of Utah, and there to be confined for an indeterminate period of one to twenty years. And the Judgment of the court is that you, Thomas Olgin be committed to the custody of the Sheriff of Beaver County to be taken to the Penitentiary of the State of Utah, and there to be confined for an indeterminate period of one to twenty years.

(The matter of the defendant Aguilar was passed for the present pending further consideration of the law relating to juveniles.)
