

THE COURT: Do you desire that sentence be pronounced at this time, Mr. Duncan?

MR. DUNCAN: Yes.

MR. ROGERS: If the court please, in this case the State recommends to your honor that your honor recommend to the Board of Pardons a sentence of one year in this case. The defendant has been in trouble before, but on account of his youth and in consideration of the fact that he has entered a plea of guilty, we feel that a sentence of one year is proper.

THE COURT: Have you anything to say why sentence should not be pronounced upon you, either personally or through your attorney?

DEFENDANT: No, sir.

MR. DUNCAN: No.

THE COURT: The judgment of the court is, therefore, that upon this plea of guilty to the charge of burglary in the second degree as embodied in the information just read to you, that you be confined in the Utah State Prison for an indeterminate term, not less than one or more than twenty years, and I will later make such recommendation as I am advised to the Board of Pardons. You are remanded to the custody of the sheriff to see that the sentence of the court is executed. That is all.

-----

I, Clyde Rasmussen, Official Reporter of the above-entitled court, hereby certify that the above and foregoing 3 typewritten pages is a full, true and correct transcript of the proceedings on arraignment, plea and sentence in the above-entitled cause.

Witness my hand this 6th day of September, A.D. 1924.

Clyde Rasmussen