

the time comes I will get out, and if I dont get out I can stay there. I am fighting my own battles.

THE COURT:

Q You dont care to tell me why you did it?

A I am ready for the sentence. I will make no more statements to anybody.

Q Very well, I think in your case, when the time comes, I shall make a recommendation--

A I dont want any recommendations from nobody.

Q In view of the statement made by you, and I have given you an opportunity--

A If I was a God-damned bum, or if I was a slick, grafter, sun-of-a-bitch-- why, you have a nigger over there who shot a man three times, and he got three months. Do you call that justice? There are several cases I can cite you to; but I dont want to take up the court's time. I come from as good a school in Ireland as an American ever did come from. I lost my mother when I was five days old, my father when I was two months. I have been pretty lucky to get through this world; but you dont take nothing under consideration. I have no political pulls. I have nobody but myself. I have fought my own battles, and I will continue to fight them too. I have been through four wars; right here with the Governor of the State of Utah with one. I am not a squealer. I haven't got no cold feet. I am here to take everything you hand me, whether it is forty, fifty, sixty or seventy-five, it doesn't make any difference to me. I am no quitter.

Q Doesn't it, as a matter of fact, make any difference to you, Mr. Murphy, whether you are sent to the penitentiary for ten
