

East Lake City, Ark.

Feb. 25th, 1923

State Prison
To the Board of Penitentiaries.

Kind Sirs:-

I pleaded guilty, in Honorable Judge Rich's court to a Statutory offense, on the twenty eight day of Sept. nineteen hundred twenty three, and was sentenced to an indeterminate term of from one yr. to five yrs.
in the State Prison.

Since my imprisonment I have I have had sufficient time, in which to realize what a grave offense I committed against the laws of society; and I have had ample time in which to consider my offense. And I ~~can~~ plainly see now I have made a mistake.

My punishment, here has sufficed to cause me to feel the shame and stigma caused by the crime which I committed, has attached to my name, aside from the grief

(2)
and worry I cause my dear mother and Father. Therefore this punishment, I can truthfully assure you has completely secured my reformation. And any consideration you afford me, I will appreciate by my future conduct. I can further assure you, that whatever your judgment may be, I shall cast no reflections whatever.

Yours Respectfully and in all sincerity.

J. Ellis P. J. Jenson.
No. 4280