

THE COURT: Yes, it is the law that a woman under the age of 18 is not capable of giving her consent.

THE DEFENDANT: I don't see any reason why you should not pronounce sentence.

THE COURT: The judgment of the Court is that you be taken by the Sheriff of this county to the State Prison and that you be there confined for a period of not less than the minimum prescribed by law for the crime of unlawfully and feloniously having carnal knowledge of a female between the ages of 13 and 18 years and for a term not exceeding the maximum term ~~and~~ prescribed by law for that offense.

The attention of the court is called to the fact that you have not as yet formally entered your plea. The proceedings heretofore had will be set aside. You have waived time for entering your plea, that is to say whether you are guilty or not guilty. What is your plea to this charge, guilty or not guilty?

THE DEFENDANT: Guilty.

THE COURT: Let the plea of guilty be entered. Now this court need not repeat the statement as to the nature of the offense. You are entitled to two days additional time before the court shall pronounce judgment upon your plea of guilty. Do you wish to take that time, or are you ready that judgment be pronounced now?

THE DEFENDANT: No, I don't see that it would do me any good.

THE COURT: Mr. Allen, do you think the defendant understands the situation?
