

affiant therefore asks the Honorable Board to grant a rehearing of the application of the said George Nigomar, and to, at such rehearing, grant a termination of his sentence; that before the year expired the said George Nigomar applied for a parole, he having at that time been offered a good job with one of the mining companies at Bingham, Utah; that said application for parole was denied, but at said time all of the facts and circumstances in regard to the termination of said sentence, and the agreement of the District Attorney, approved by Judge McCrea, were not fully presented to said Board. Affiant now, therefore, asks a reconsideration of said cause.
