James Parker, being first duly sworn, on oath deposes and says:

That I was denied Termination of Sentence by the Board of Pardons at their meeting in September;

That I now have new evidence which I was unable to present at that meeting, showing that I am not guilty of the crime for which I am here;

That Captain Ayland of the Sheriff's office will appear in person before the Board of Pardons to present such evidence as will show that I am not guilty.

That my reason for pleading guilty at the time of my trial was caused by the lawyer who was appointed by the Court advising me to plead guilty, saying that was the easiest and only way out.

That I have a position to go to in California as soon as I am released here.

James Parker
