

THE COURT: Have you an attorney, Mr. Parker?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir; I don't desire one.

THE COURT: You don't want an attorney?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

THE COURT: You are entitled to one day's additional time, and that in your case would mean until Monday Morning, in which to enter your plea to the charge contained in this information, and that means, by entering your plea, that you state whether you are guilty or not guilty. Do you wish to take the time allowed by law, before making that declaration, or are you ready to state now.

THE DEFENDANT: I wish to get it over with as soon as possible.

THE COURT: You waive time?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Are you willing to plead now.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: What is your plea to the charge contained in this information just read to you, guilty or not guilty.

MR. ROGERS: I understand that the defendant desires to enter a plea of guilty to the charge of grand larceny, which is satisfactory to the state.

THE COURT: That is the second count.

MR. ROGERS: That is the second count.

THE COURT: And the first count is to be nolle. Is that as you understand, then, you are willing to enter a plea to the charge of grand larceny, as just read to
