

are entitled to further time, at least two days before the court shall pronounce judgment against you. Do you wish to take that time.

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir, I wish to get it over with.

THE COURT: You wish to proceed now?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: You are satisfied Mr. King that is the best course to pursue?

MR. KING: Yes.

THE COURT: James Parker, you have heretofore been charged by the information of the District Attorney, filed by the District Attorney with the crime of Grand Larceny committed as alleged as follows, that in this county and state on the 21st day of September, 1923, in the night time of said day--that is immaterial as to grand larceny, you did wilfully, unlawfully, and feloniously steal, take and carry away from the possession of Paul K. Randall, against the will of the said Paul K. Randall, certain personal property described in the information, of the value of $200.00, said personal property being then and there the property of and in the possession of the said Paul K. Randall. To this charge you have pleaded that you are guilty, and this is the time appointed for the pronouncing of sentence and judgment of the court. Have you any reason to allege why the judgment of the court should not now be pronounced against you?

THE DEFENDANT: No, sir.

THE COURT: If you wish to say anything, you may
