

do so, or if you wish your attorney to speak for you, that may be done.

MR. KING: I don't think there is anything to say. I understand from what he has told me, this is the first time, outside of once in New York that he was arrested for drunkenness, he has ever been charged with a crime. He is a working man, and is of the age of nineteen years.

THE COURT: Has the District Attorney anything to say.

MR. ROGERS: I have no information outside of what is contained in the information.

THE COURT: You say your age is only nineteen years.

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: You may sit down a minute or two if you wish. You say you are only nineteen years old.

THE DEFENDANT: Yew, sir.

THE COURT: Where do your parents live?

THE DEFENDANT: My mother and father is dead. My nearest relatives live in Kingston, Jamaica.

THE COURT: How long have you been in this country.

THE DEFENDANT: Abouts even years.

THE COURT: You came over here when you were twelve years old?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.

THE COURT: What have you been doing in the meantime?

THE DEFENDANT: In the meantime I drove a truck. I am a pretty good driver of a truck.

THE COURT: Where have you been, what places in
