

this country.

THE DEFENDANT: Well, the first place I worked was for the Pennsylvania Railroad at Pittsburg, Penna., three years and a half.

THE COURT: You didn't drive a truck when you were twelve years old?

THE DEFENDANT: I was working for the Pennsylvania Railroad at that time wiping engines and so forth in the round house.

THE COURT: Where did you go from Pittsburg:

THE DEFENDANT: When I left Pittsburg I went to California.

THE COURT: What place?

THE DEFENDANT: To Westwood, California.

THE COURT: Where is that, near what large city. Is it near San Francisco or Los Angeles or San Diego?

THE DEFENDANT: I think a pretty good ways from San Francisco.

THE COURT: How long did you stay there?

THE DEFENDANT: I don't know exactly, a good while. Then after that I stayed in Porterville, California. I worked there driving a truck, doing contract work.

THE COURT: How long were you there?

THE DEFENDANT: Well, I was there until three months ago.

THE COURT: At Porterville?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: How long did you live in Porterville?
