

THE DEFENDANT: A matter of a bout two years I should judge.

THE COURT: Who did you work for there?

THE DEFENDANT: Well, I was with another fellow, we were partners, a fellow by the name of Frank Tilley, we were business partners, we had a truck.

THE COURT: You ran a truck?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: , You stayed there until three months ago?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: What became of the truck?

THE DEFENDANT: He has the truck.

THE COURT: You came away?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: What was the trouble, did you own an interest in it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, but there was no work in the town, and I got out to look for work.

THE COURT: When did you come to Salt Lake County?

THE DEFENDANT: I believe on the 17th, I am not positive.

THE COURT: September 17th?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir, I believe so, it was about the 17th of last month.

THE COURT: Did you go to Garfield first?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir, I went out there.

THE COURT: Trying to get work?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes, sir, tried to get work there.