

Q Was anybody with you when you left here?

A Left Detroit?

Q No, left here? Were you alone or was some one with you?

A I did not leave here only when I left out there to come to Salt Lake, and Clark and I was together.

Q Clark and you? A. Yes sir.

Q Who is Clark? A That is a friend of mine.

Q Where did you meet him? A.-Chicago.

Q Did you meet him in Chicago? A. Yes sir.

Q You traveled with Clark a good deal, or did you come straight through?

A He and I went all the way through to Indianapolis. He had been to Frisco, and then we was going to Los Angeles to see my aunt, then I was going on over to San Francisco with him; but there was a train wreck close to Tooele.

Q And you got a job at the smelter?

A Yes sir.

Q What kind of work was that?

A In the converter building.

Q How long did you work there?

A Three months and a half, I guess.

Q What did you do after that?

A Nothing. I could not find any work when I left Tooele.

Q How was it you lost your job?

A I did not lose my job, Judge. I was arrested in Tooele; I did not want to stay there then and work there, and stay there, so I worked for a fellow at Magna.

Q What were you doing?

A I was driving a car for a fellow living in Magna.
