

A Well, I had been there, Judge, a number of times with her.

Q You went there to visit her? A. Yes sir.

Q Did she live alone?

A She stays at the hotel.

Q But you went with her to this house a number of times?

A Yes sir.

Q Well, now, how was it you came and took these things out of the house? Why did you do that?

A I don't know, Judge.

Q Did you ever do anything like that before?

A Only once; and I had permission from her to take a pump from there; and she was going to meet me at two o'clock one afternoon to give me the keys to get in the garage to get the pump out of the car. I did not meet her; I was in Grantsville, and at seven-thirty or eight o'clock I went down and busted the lock off the garage, to go and get the pump; and this boy I met and loaned the pump to, she goes over to get the pump from him, and he would not give the pump up to her, and she goes to Mr. Evans about the pump, and he said I went and stole it, but she would not put in a complaint against me, because she gave me permission to take it.

Q How long ago was that?

A About four months ago, I think.

Q Did you visit her after that? A. Yes.

Q Were you friendly with her after that? A. Yes sir.

Q Did you ever have any trouble before coming to Utah?

A Only fighting and disorderly, speeding.

Q Fighting and what? A. Disorderly and speeding.

Q Disorderly conduct, and speeding? A. Yes sir.

Q Was that in an automobile-- automobile speeding?
