

Q Are they separated?

A They have been separated about ten years.

Q What has been your business, the last few years?

A Automobile repairing, working for the Lincoln Motors, in Detroit.

Q For how long a time? A. Five years.

Q What particular branch of that service were you in?

A Sir?

Q What particular branch of that service were you in?

A Driving; road testing.

Q Road testing? A. Yes sir; final road testing.

Q For how long? A. Five years.

Q Since you were sixteen years old? A. Yes sir.

Q Well, during that time where were you living? With your father? A. Yes sir; 3086 West, Grand Boulevard.

Q Did he live alone-- you and he live alone?

A Yes sir.

Q What is his business?

A He has got charge of an enamelling room for Ford, since Mr. Ford bought the Lincoln Motors.

Q What did you do before that time, before five years ago?

A Went to school.

Q In Detroit? A. Yes sir.

Q How far along did you get in school? A. Tenth grade.

Q Tenth grade? A. Yes sir.

Q Does that mean that you had finished the common school?

A I got my eighth grade diploma and one year in High School.

Q One year in High School? A. Yes sir.

Q How did you happen to come out here?

A Just traveling around-- a roving notion.