CLERK
WEBER COUNTY

OGDEN, UTAH. November 16th 1922.

To the Honorable Board of Pardons, Utah State Prison,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

In re: The State of Utah vs. Sam Addleson:

Gentlemen:

The State prosecuted the defendant, Sam Addleson , upon an information filed against him by the District Attorney of this Judicial District, charging him with the crime of Rape, a felony, which the information alleges was committed as follows:

The said defendants, on July 25, 1921, at the County of Weber, State of Utah, wilfully, unlawfully and feloniously accomplished an act of sexual intercourse with a female, not the wife of either of them, to-wit, Amy Ekins, a girl seventeen years of age, the will and power of resistance of said Amy Ekins being then and there overcome by the giving and administration to said Amy Ekins of intoxicating, narcotic and anaesthetic substances by the said defendants for the purpose of preventing resistance on the part of said female, and the defendants did in the manner aforesaid forcefully and violently carnally know, abuse and ravish said Amy Ekins;

Contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the State of Utah.

On November 16th. 1921, a jury duly empanelled in the above entitled action, brought in a verdict as follows:

"We the jury empanelled in the above entitled action, find the defendant Sam Addleson Guilty of Rape"
