

on August 15 for the west in search of work. it seems they got as far as Ogden and their money was all gone, so on this 22nd day of August our son was looking for work all day and was alone. so after a while this fellow that went with our son, came to him and told him that he had found a way to get some money. so Edd went with him not knowing what kind of a fellow he was, or from what source he was to get this money. but they were soon joined by a third party, and it seems they went out of town on the railroad track, and here they ran onto their intended victims, so these two other fellows that Edd was with