My dear Grandma,

What I am very glad to have the pleasure of writing to such a wonderful person as you are, for looking from all angles you are the best I ever knew. I would spare like to have a long talk to with you for that it is an inspiration to me. Now Grandma I don't want you to feel bad and worry over me for being in such a place as I am for I do swear before you, the most estimable one I ever saw, and before our beloved God that I am perfectly innocent of this charge, and you know Grandma I would tell you the truth about such a charge, because of my love and respect for you at your age. I shall also hope you are well and happy.

I am well and am happy to be able to look at things in the right way. At first my heart was over flowing with revenge to the ones who sent me here on a false charge, but that has all left now, and
