

WILLIAM F. KNOX

ATTORNEY AT LAW

BEAVER, UTAH

June 18th, 1925.

Messrs. Holmgren, Anderson & Russell,

Salt Lake City, Utah.

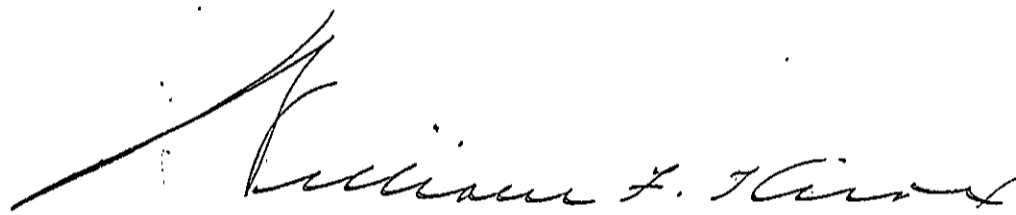

Gentlemen:-

I have not answered your letter in regard to the proposed pardon or parole of Frank Hernandez, because, I really do not know much about the case or the defendant. Our Sheriff is, however, familiar with the facts in the case. He lives at Milford and I have not had a chance to see him until to-day.

After talking with him, I have decided that the defendant is entitled to favorable consideration at the hands of the Honorable, Board of Pardons.

From my investigation of the case, I feel that the defendant Frank Hernandez should be either pardoned or paroled.

Very truly yours,
