Board of Pardoners

Dear Sirs:

I hear that.

Frank Hernandez is going before you some time this month and as he worked here on my ranch in the sugar beets for two years as boss of a gang of Mexicans

I should like to say in regards to his character that it was very good.

He was always agreeable and good natured also industrious.

There was never one dispute between he & the rest of the gang in that length of time, as has been the case before & since nearly every year, in the last ten that I have been raising beets.

Frank has a good reputation here & is the best
