CLARENCE COWAN
CLERK
EDGAR A. ROGERS
DISTRICT ATTORNEY

November 29, 1924.

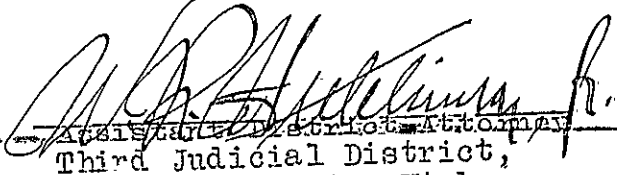

To the Honorable Board of Pardons,
State Prison,
City.

Gentlemen:-

In regard to the case of State of Utah vs. James Nikolopolous whose application will come before you at your next regular session, I will state that under the facts as I view them in his case, favorable action upon your part in regard to his application would be proper.

From information submitted to me subsequent to the tragedy, I will state that I am of the opinion that the applicant is not a criminal at heart or criminally inclined, and that the punishment which has been imposed upon him up to date since the date of the tragedy in my opinion is commensurate of the crime committed in view of all the facts and attending circumstances.

Respectfully yours,

Edgar A. Rogers, Attorney
Third Judicial District,
Salt Lake County, Utah.
