Honorable Board of Pardons,
City

Gentlemen:

I am informed that James Nickolopoulos who entered a plea of guilty to a charge of voluntary manslaughter is now applying for a pardon. I feel that his case deserves consideration from your Honorable Board. This defendant was a law abiding citizen prior to this crime and bore a very good reputation in this city.

The man this defendant shot was a good friend and the defendant claimed that he fired the shot under the belief that it was an enemy whom he greatly feared. This man went on several hunger strikes and seemed to be greatly disturbed mentally by this occurrence and I believe that he has been punished sufficiently he is now penitent.

Very respectfully,
