

THE COURT: Do you know how long he had been in Park City?

MR. JOHNSON: He has been there-- I think he might make that statement himself-- he informs me he has never been in any trouble before, and that this is his first time. He came from Canada. His mother is dead. I guess the young fellow perhaps may not have much of a home.

You were shipped in on that construction work?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.

MR. JOHNSON: On that branch line going to the Park City. He is not a miner, are you?

THE DEFENDANT: No.

THE COURT: Just come over here, Mr. McCuaig. When were you twenty-one?

THE DEFENDANT: In April, 10th.

THE COURT: Of last year?

THE DEFENDANT: Last year.

THE COURT: Last year?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.

THE COURT: You will be twenty-two then next April?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir, April coming.

THE COURT: Born and raised in Canada?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.

THE COURT: What part of Canada?

THE DEFENDANT: Lochiel, seven miles from Alexandria.

THE COURT: Went to school?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.

THE COURT: How long?

THE DEFENDANT: I went up to the second year in high
