

school and then took a course in business college, a scholarship.

THE COURT: What have you done since you got out of college?

THE DEFENDANT: I worked in the mines, that is all.

THE COURT: Did not put your business college course to any application?

THE DEFENDANT: No, just went there, I took typewriting and shorthand, did not finish it out.

Q THE COURT: Never practiced that since you got out of school?

THE DEFENDANT: No sir.

THE COURT: What mines have you worked in?

THE DEFENDANT: I worked at the Judge in Park City and the Black Rock in Butte.

THE COURT: How long have you been in Utah?

THE DEFENDANT: Just a month.

THE COURT: Just a month?

THE DEFENDANT: I came into Park City on the 26th. I got arrested on the 27th; I was just there a month.

THE COURT: Immediately prior to coming to Park City what were you doing?

THE DEFENDANT: Just the day I came in I got a job at the Judge.

THE COURT: I know, but prior to that where did you come from?

THE DEFENDANT: I came from Butte.

THE COURT: From Butte?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.
