

THE COURT: How long had you been in Butte?

THE DEFENDANT: I was there for a little over two years.

THE COURT: In what mines?

THE DEFENDANT: I just worked in one mine; I worked in the Black Rock after I quit school.

THE COURT: You worked under the name that you--

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.

THE COURT: Your correct name. What were you doing in the mine, what particular--

THE DEFENDANT: Mucker.

THE COURT: Just a mucker?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.

THE COURT: Have you ever been in any trouble before?

THE DEFENDANT: No sir, except a little automobile accident, had to appear in court for that.

THE COURT: You appeared in court for that?

THE DEFENDANT: Another fellow, and I was driving, and the accident happened, and of course he got me up there to say I was driving, that is all.

THE COURT: With reference to this particular offense, it was committed about as detailed by the County Attorney, was it?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

MR. JOHNSON: The way I stated?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.

MR. JOHNSON: If it is not you make a statement.

THE DEFENDANT: That is correct.

THE COURT: You saw Mrs. Sullivan take the purse out,
