

and that is how you found out where it was?

THE DEFENDANT: No, I did not see her take the money out. She gave me the money, she gave me $1.10. I did not see where she put the money back. I was out in the kitchen, I went in with the milk every night.

THE COURT: Just a little bit louder.

THE DEFENDANT: I was working down at the ranch, and I had to go in the kitchen every night and morning with the milk.

THE COURT: You had been working. You had had your pay, hadn't you?

THE DEFENDANT: Yes sir.

THE COURT: Did not need the money for yourself?

THE DEFENDANT: I signed over the check to her.

THE COURT: Beg pardon.

THE DEFENDANT: I signed over the check to her.

THE COURT: So that she had your--

THE DEFENDANT: She had my pay.

THE COURT: Check. Did you have anything coming out of it?

THE DEFENDANT: I only boarded there a week. I had $32.55 coming, I never got a cent from it. She never gave me a cent back, and when I quit working she asked me if I would go down and work on the ranch and she promised to pay my board and room and give me a pair of overalls and shoes. She got me a pair of--

THE COURT: What did your father do?

THE DEFENDANT: He is in Lochiel.

THE COURT: What is he doing?
