Mr. H. Macmillan
Dear Sir, I heard that that your trial is coming on the 19th and that you will get your freedom again and if you want I can back and finish your course in the business college, your home is here for you and if you are broke and want to go to Law, I can help you and you don't need a lot of money to go to Law, I can help you and his address 442 Minnesota Ave. and he can be able to get you a job and if you do get clear be sure and thank the court and give them the amount was said and they are all well but I. Macmillan So I will draw to a close for this

This time hoping that you will be released. And that that I can be a debt to you in your future life. With Best regards
J.

Yours H. Macmillan
