James Deving, Warden,
Salt Lake City,
Utah.

Sir:-

Walter Abbington tells me that on June 16th he will appear before the Board of Pardons

Upon his release depends not only his chance to make good, but my own future security and happiness. I am praying that the Board will consider that his year in prison has earned another chance. A Salt Lake business man has promised his aid in securing employment and as his is a well paid trade it will not be so hard to make restitution. If he obtains parole I intend, when finances permit, to go to him + do all in my power to help him toward that end.

I know you will do your best for him and so, no
