

security and peace of mind, and find it in your hearts to give that word?

A Salt Lake business man has promised his utmost aid in securing employment as his trade is well paid my husband will be all the more able to pay back what is still due. If you grant parole I intend to go to him and do all in my power to help toward that end.

Trusting that you will give him this one (of the seventy ~~times~~ seven) chance, I am

Hopefully yours,
Mrs. R. O. Underwood.

Gen. Del.

I have managed to keep this trouble from the public here, for the sake of my people. Will you please refrain from any action which would make my care of them useless?
