vs

Okey Winemiller,

Defendant.

INFORMATION NO. _____

TO THE HONORABLE BOARD OF PARDONS OF THE STATE OF UTAH:

In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 100, of the Session Laws of the State of Utah, of 1913, I herewith transmit in duplicate the statement required by that act.

In my opinion the term for which the defendant should serve is Seven Years.

The defendant was charged with grand larceny of certain personal property consisting of wearing apparel, jewelry and other articles, belonging to Mr. & Mrs. T. A. Osborne of this city. To this charge he pleaded that he was not guilty and a trial was had on October 9th of this year.

It developed at the trial that Mr. & Mrs. Osborne left for Yellowstone Park about the 8th of August, this year, and upon their return they found that their home had been broken into and all of their wearing apparel, silver and jewelry had been taken. The defendant was apprehended in Reno, and at that time he had in his possession the silverware and some jewelry, he having sold the wearing apparel in the red-light district of that city. He accounted for his possession of this property both to the officers
